Wrestling Observer Live returns tonight from 3-5 PM PT, 6-8 ET with myself and guest co-host Les Thatcher! We'll be talking all the news in pro wrestling and mixed martial arts, particularly the Henry Waxman documents regarding steroid use in professional wrestling. We'll be joined by Dave Meltzer to talk the New Japan Tokyo Dome show in hour one, and then in the second hour we'll be joined by Marc Mero to talk the history of Congress investigating wrestling post-Benoit. We'll be taking calls the entire two hours about pro-wresting and MMA at 1-800-878-PLAY. You can listen live on Sirius Satellite Radio channel 122, by using this live streaming link, or by clicking the WOL link on the main menu. You can also e-mail questions to me at figure4@ix.netcom.com, and we'll have a live chat during the show for members. Information on how to access the chat is available in the Radio Show section of the BOARD.
