We're looking for your thoughts on Saturday's UFC on Fuel show so you can leave a thumbs up, thumbs down or thumbs in the middle along with a best and worst match to dave@wrestlingobserver.com

We're also looking for live reports from Raw tonight in Oklahoma City. It's Jim Ross Appreciation Night, although there is a good chance that will only be for the live audience. Scheduled for the show is a debate between Sheamus and Big Show to set up their Hell in a Cell match. Booker T will be the moderator. John Cena was not scheduled for the show as of last word. It's possible he may air on tape. No matches have been announced. Superstars will also be taped here. Jack Swagger is advertised locally to return tonight. He was a college wrestling star at Oklahoma years back. Danny Hodge is also expected to be at the show at least for the ceremony honoring Jim Ross.

We're also looking for live reports from these shows: *Friday night's WWE Raw house show in St. Joseph, MO (C.M. Punk vs. Big Show)

*Sunday's Raw house show in Wichita

*Sunday's Smackdown house show in Wichita Falls, TX

Smackdown, Main Event (for its Wednesday night debut on Ion) and Saturday Morning Slam are taped on Tuesday night in Tulsa. C.M. Punk vs. Sheamus in a champion vs. champion match will headline the first Main Event show.

We've got two issues on the web site and one double sized issue in print coming out this week. Both issues are currently up on the site.

Our lead story looks at an update on Jerry Lawler, updating his physical condition, his recovery from the heart attack and his appearance on Raw. We also have more on Lawler history in Memphis, including the Jerry Lawler vs. Jimmy Valiant feud, Lawler's first retirement angle, the forgotten night that Lawler won the AWA title from Nick Bockwinkel but it was only mentioned in Memphis, the Lawler vs. Bockwinkel angle including when Bockwinkel came in as AWA champion to defend even though Rick Martel was champion at the time, as well as the only time Bobby Heenan ever managed Bockwinkel in Memphis.

We also look at what SummerSlam says about Brock Lesnar, including comparing this year's PPV numbers with every SummerSlam dating back to 2008 both on a domestic and international basis and how interesting those numbers are.

We also look back at UFC 152, with the story behind Jon Jones and Dana White making up, business notes from the show, a look at ticket sales before Jon Jones was on the card and after and what that means. We also look at the top fights on the show, the judging, the unique fight that could have been judged three different ways based on what scoring system was used, as well as poll results and a show rundown.

We also look at WWE's new deal with Hulu Plus, what it entails, how this does or doesn't affect the proposed network and how the Raw on the USA Network and the repeat showing on Hulu Plus are altogether different.

We also look at New Japan's Destruction PPV, running down the stories and the results, as well as a look at the big head-to-head showdown in the Tokyo area in two weeks where New Japan and Pro Wrestling NOAH both have major shows, and what NOAH is doing to compete.

The Wrestling Observer ranges weekly from 35,000 to 50,000 words covering pro wrestling and MMA internationally. Each issue has coverage and analysis of all the major news, plus every issue breaks major news stories before the Internet sties and has the most complete look at the pro wrestling and MMA business anywhere, plus history pieces available nowhere else.

The Observer is now in its 29th year of being the leading insider pro wrestling publication in the world. The biggest and most influential names in the pro wrestling and MMA industry, from bookers to promoters to Hall of Fame wrestlers and fighters to the biggest names on camera and behind the scenes, along with thousands of readers in all 50 states and more than 30 countries subscribe. Many have subscribed for 20 years or longer consecutively. They get the most detailed and inside coverage of what is going on all over the world. Everywhere from Wall Street to the major offices to television networks in the U.S. and Japan turn to the Observer for what is going on in the business.

If you are a new subscriber ordering 24 or more issues, you can get one free classic issue of your choice sent to you today. With a 40 issue subscription, you can get two free classic issues sent to you today. Just sent your Visa or Master Card order with your name, address, phone number, card number and expiration date to dave@wrestlingobserver.com

You can also order by paypal by sending to www.paypal.com and directing the funds to dave@wrestlingobserver.com

You can also subscribe via check, cash or money order, as well as credit card by mail, by sending to Wrestling Observer Newsletter, P.O Box 1228, Campbell, CA 95009-1228. We also look at the WWE's relationship with Silver Vision ending, an update on John Cena's elbow surgery, another WWE star gets two operations during his down time, the Linda McMahon run for senate and how nasty it has gotten and how the public is viewing it. We look at the McMahons paying back people they owe, the McMahons late on tax bills, Murphy late out his mortgage and how both candidates are now turning off voters. We also look at the Democratic party's behind the scenes view on this being such a pivotal race because the senate majority is in jeopardy in this election.

We've got more on Cameron's legal issues, the crazy schedule for nearly next year of Dwayne Johnson, a look at how Beth Phoenix got into WWE and her departure, the new plans for TV tapings starting next week as well as the WWE schedule for the end of the year. We also look at current plans for November.

We look at WWE signing new broadcasters, the NXT TV tapings, how Edge's episode of Haven did, Chris Jericho post WWE and his musical career, WWE you tube channel, a roster wrestler seemingly forgotten shows up, a wrestler just cut talks about her departure and reputation. We also look at the WWE business over the past week and a rundown of all the house shows.

We also look at the life and career of Don Hatfield, better known as Don Fields from the famous Fields brothers of the 50s and 60s, and their role in wrestling in Alabama and Tennessee, and a look at one of the largest pro wrestling families of all-time that they came from.

We also have a rundown of the Dragon Gate Dangerous Gate PPV show from the past weekend.

We also have a look at the ratings of all the major shows and complete details on how every segment of Raw and Impact this past week did. We look at what segments gained and lost viewers

We also have results from all the major league arena events over the past week as well as a look at all the major television shows. Also in this week's issue: --More on WWE and All Japan --Kevin Nash returns to Japan

We now have available personally autographed copies of Tributes II, our latest book, as well as a DVD that comes with it talking more about the subjects in the book. The book covers the life stories of Lou Thesz, Wahoo McDaniel, Elizabeth, Fred Blassie, Road Warrior Hawk, Andre the Giant, Curt Hennig, Johnny Valentine, Davey Boy Smith, Terry Gordy, Owen Hart, Stu Hart, Gorilla Monsoon, The Sheik and Tim Woods.

To get all of those biographies as back issues of the Observer would be a $60 value today. This is a collection of some of the best Observer articles of the past several years in a hardcover, full-color format that is 239 pages. There is also a foreword by Bret Hart. The book price is $12.95 plus $3.50 for shipping costs in the U.S., $10 for shipping costs to Canada and $12 for shipping costs outside North America. You can order the book the same way you order the newsletter.

Monday's news update --Bryan and I will be back talking Raw, as well as the latest wrestling and MMA news tonight on Wrestling Observer radio. You can send questions for tonight's show to mailbag@wrestlingobserver.com --The Miz will be on tonight's "Pair of Kings" on Disney. The show airs at 7:30 p.m. It also replays on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m.

--Jerry Lawler was interviewed by ESPN at http://espn.go.com/blog/playbook/trending/post/_/id/8834/wwes-jerry-lawler-talks-heart-attack-recovery and said he thinks he could go into the ring today and wrestle, that's how good he feels, but knows it wouldn't be smart.

--Dave Bautista apparently doesn't like the fact someone on the roster is getting a push. He did an interview with MMA Junkie where he said he doesn't watch WWE much these days because of "kids who are more concerned with how their hair looks and how much baby oil they have on." He specifically cited guys from Real World, which kind of narrows it down to one.

--Bautista's opponent is scheduled to be announced tomorrow morning. I do know that as late as Saturday, there were a number of people turning it down in area gyms based on no lead time.

--The C.M. Punk DVD will be screened at 7 p.m. on Thursday at the Portage Theater in Chicago. The screening will be free for the first 1,000 people who attend. There will be a Q&A with Punk after the screening. --There has been a lot of talk about the Helio Gracie vs. Masahiko Kimura fight in 1951 today because today would have been Master Helio's 99th birthday. --Ultimate Fighter on Friday night was down to 775,000 viewers, the lowest in history. Our weekend poll results looked bad for the show in the sense so many people skipped it, so I wasn't surprised.

--There has been a lot of talk this week that Raw may hit an all-time audience low over the past nearly 15 years for a non-holiday show tonight. Last week's show was the lowest in almost 15 years and there is a Chicago Bears vs. Dallas Cowboys game tonight. Wrestling in general has been getting hurt by football the last few weeks.

--Lilian Garcia performed at the Jets game with the 49ers yesterday, at Met Life Stadium. I was told she looked and sounded great, but most people didn't know who she was and didn't watch her when she performed at halftime. She was announced as a recording artist and WWE Smackdown personality. There are video screens all over the stadium with the WrestleMania logo and date, so they are getting a lot of eyeballs every Sunday at home games seeing plugs for the show (thanks to Tony Viggiani) --Due to issues with the new ownership of the NWA name, Greg Price's NWA Fan Feset in Charlotte on 8/3 and 8/4 of next year will instead be called Mid Atlantic Memories with no mention of the NWA name.

--Regarding the New Year's weekend, Smackdown will be taped on Sunday instead of Tuesday, 12/30 in Richmond, VA.

--Tryouts for the second season of Ultimate Fighter Brazil will be on 10/14 at the Windsor Barra Hotel in Rio de Janeiro. They will be doing lightweights and middleweights. To try out one has to be between 18 and 35 and have at least three verifiable wins.

--Elaina Maxwell pulled out of Saturday's Invicta show due to an injury. She was to face Julia Budd. The show in Kansas City will be streamed live on the web. About two years ago, we were eating at Outback and Maxwell was our waitress. My wife recognized her instantly because she fought Gina Carano in San Jose many years ago in what was actually Carano's first high profile MMA fight. The show will begin at 7 p.m. Eastern and 4 p.m. Pacific time.

--Progress Wrestling from last night in Islington, London, England: Noam Dar b Paul Robinson, Mark Andrews b Xander Cooper, Rob Lynch & James Davis b Danny Garnell & Darrell Allen, Jon Ryan b Jimmy Havoc in a Hardcore death match, R.J. Singh b Rob Cage, Stixx b Lion Kid, Dave Mastiff & Greg Burrige b Nathan Cruz & El Ligero with Marty Scurl as referee. Next show is 11/25 at The Dome in the Boston Arms Pub in Tifnell Park in North London with Cruz defending the title against Ligero (thanks to Martin Bentley)

--During the show above, Jeremy Borash was there filming a segment for the TV show TNA British Bootcamp. Marty Scurl, The Blossom Twins and Rockstar Spud, who are the featured people on the show, were all there. It was teased that Scurl vs. Spud will be at the January TNA TV tapings in London at Wembley Arena. Spud did an interview and was booed loudly. The Blossom Twins, who are bigger than spud, were doing an interview when Spud took the mic away. One of the twins said she could even beat up Spud and that he had a small package. Scurl got a big ovation as a home town wrestler. He was out drinking beer saying he was going to win the show. So it was a fan interview challenge that Scurl was voted the winner of. The show will begin airing on 1/1 in the U.K. (thanks to Martin Bentley and Daniel Beake)
