

Ion sent out a press release regarding the ratings without actually listing the number. But the show did 1.39 million viewers.

It was the fourth highest in its time slot in adult males among both broadcast and cable networks, including beat ESPN baseball in the demo.