

Another UFC suspension

Friday, 12 October 2012 12:18

Jake Shields publicly stated that he was suspended for six months from the Colorado State Athletic Commission stemming from testing positive for a banned substance taken prior to his 8/11 win over Ed Herman in Denver.

There is no word what substance he was referring to and whether his win over Herman will be rescinded.